Actress Ellen Tamaki (playing Niko Hamada) wears ZoeBird Designs™ Labradorite Hexagon Necklace on Charmed Episode 112 (air date February 17, 2019).

Online PR News â€“ 07-March-2019â€“ Jo Garrett of ZoeBird Designs (ZoeBirdDesigns.etsy.com) is pleased to announce that actress Ellen Tamaki wore the designer's handcrafted Labradorite Hexagon Necklace on Episode 112 of The CW's "Charmed." The episode, titled â€œYouâ€™re Dead to Meâ€•, aired February 17, 2019. This marks the 4th television placement for ZoeBird Designs jewelry, which has previously appeared on "The Vampire Diaries," "Bloodline," and "A Christmas Melody."

Â

"It was so exciting to see my Hexagon Necklace on â€œCharmed"! The six sides of the hexagon symbolize going beyond the five senses to experience life as a spiritual journey. I think this made it a great fit for mystical theme of the show," remarked Jo.

Â

This original ZoeBird Designs necklace was selected for the character Niko Hamada, portrayed by actress Ellen Tamaki, by the wardrobe stylist for "Charmed," in collaboration with California-based The Artisan GroupÂ®. Jo hand-crafted the unique and stylish necklace using a semi-precious Labradorite gemstone pendant and an oxidized sterling silver chain with gold fill accents. She notes, "The minimalist design lets the gorgeous hexagonal labradorite take center stage."

Â

The necklace retails for $46.00 and is available to purchase at ZoeBirdDesigns.etsy.com.

Â

ZoeBird Designs is becoming a popular jewelry resource for Hollywood stylists.
