Patti Zlaket to Focus on Personal Injury, Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Litigation

Online PR News " 11-October-2011 " SAN DIEGO (October 11, 2011) Casey Gerry San Diegos oldest plaintiffs law firm -- has expanded its pharmaceutical and medical device litigation practice team with the addition of new associate Patti Zlaket.

Â

Zlaket, who concentrates her practice on personal injury, medical device and pharmaceutical products liability, will work closely with firm partners Wendy Behan and Gayle Blatt in representing clients against the manufacturers of Actos, Fosamax, Topamax (birth defects), Darvon/Darvocet, defective hip and knee implants and defective pain pumps.

Â

Patti is a talented personal injury attorney and we are thrilled that she will also join our pharmaceutical and medical device litigation team, which has a successful track record in national litigation against the makers of dangerous medical products and medications, said senior partner David S. Casey, Jr. She will play an important role as we continue to concentrate on growing this practice.

Â

Zlaket, who has worked for Casey Gerry since 2009, graduated cum laude from California Western School of Law in 2008, and holds a Bachelors Degree in theater from the University of Southern California. She is a member of Lawyers Club San Diego, the State Bar of California, the American Association for Justice, the San Diego County Bar Association and the Consumer Attorneys of San Diego.

Â

Prior to joining the firm, Zlaket had a successful career in music production and performance, and still performs regularly around San Diego at venues such as Humphreys Backstage Lounge. She also added stand-up comedy to her rsum last year, when she won the LAF-Off (Lawyers are Funny) fundraiser which benefits the San Diego Volunteer Lawyer Program. Since then, she has taken her act on the road, performing for organizations such as American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), Lawyers Club San Diego and San Diego Volunteer Lawyers.
