bestretirementdestinations.com released the list of the best assisted living retirement communities for February 2010. Each retirement community on the list was put through an extensive evaluation process that ensured that they were providing the best assisted living environment for retirees.

Online PR News â€“ 24-February-2010â€“ Plymouth, IN- bestretirementdestinations.com has announced the February 2010 rankings of the best assisted retirement living communities. These communities offer the best amenities and accommodations for their residents.

Â

Retirement communities are housing communities that cater to the needs of retirees. The assisted living retirement communities are geared toward individuals over age 55 that are looking for a supportive and active environment in retirement. The homes and services offered cater to those are in need of assistance. We all require assistance at some point in our lives and when that point comes, we want that one assisted living retirement community that will provide the individual attention that is needed, explains bestretirementdestinations.com.

Â

The top ten assisted living retirement communities are:

Â

1. The Watermark at Logan Square
2. TidePointe, A Classic Residence by Hyatt
3. The Cedars of Chapel Hill
4. Thunderbird Retirement Resort
5. The Retreat at Santa Rita Springs
6. Classic Residence by Hyatt in Monterey
7. Casa de las Campanas
8. The Watermark at 3030 Park
9. The Classic at West Palm Beach
