Home Helpers provides home care in Des Plaines IL and the surrounding areas.

AlzheimersCareToday.com contains articles and information specific to the care of family members suffering from Alzheimer's Disease, including Alzheimer's Treatments, Dementia Care, and Signs and Symptoms of Alzheimer's Disease, tips and articles. All content is written by experts in the home care and assisted living industries.

We have dozens of experts nationwide who are happy to share information and advice to families who have a loved one with Alzheimer's Disease. Many are home care agency owners who speak to family caregivers every single day. They know and understand the challenges of Alzheimer's Disease and deal with these challenges full time. We are sharing their expertise on this new website, states Valerie VanBooven RN BSN, Co-Owner of LTC Expert Publications, and author of three books on senior care, elder care, and caregiving.

AlzheimersCareToday.com will highlight and feature a different expert who will share tips and information on Alzheimer's Disease Care each month.

We are honored to have Tom Merlin, (www.NorthSuburbanHomeCare.com) as one of our official featured experts. Tom is co-owner of Home Helpers in Des Plaines IL together with wife Lisa, and business partner Joy Schaefer, offering families the services of professional caregivers to assist them with activities of daily living and aging in place. He just submitted a new Alzheimer's Care article, Advances in Alzheimer's Care: The Power of Storytelling adds VanBooven.

Home Helpers of Northeastern Illinois has received the Home Services Agency license required by the Illinois Department of Public Health as of September 2008. We are proud members of the Des Plaines Chamber of Commerce, the Skokie Chamber of Commerce and the DBR Chamber of Commerce Tom and Joy have both taken the course of study and passed the examination to become Certified Senior Advisors. We have also taken the Best Friends Approach train-the-trainer course offered by the Alzheimers Association.

Tom Merlin says: The experience of owning and managing Home Helpers of Northeastern Illinois has been a richly rewarding experience. We strive to relieve the stress that can come with making a decision about who is going to fill in when a family caregiver can no longer provide the service their loved one needs and deserves. Through our free in-home consultation, we can evaluate the situation and match the clients requirements with a customized care plan. We have become the source of caregiving we wish we knew about when we needed help with aging parents. We hope we can spare our future clients the anguish of not knowing who to turn to when they need help. Home Helpers of Northeastern Illinois is just a phone call away from helping out at home, wherever our clients call home, be it an independent or assisted living facility or that bungalow they have owned for decades.
