Â

Taylor & Vine, the online costume jewellery retailer has this week launched its summer jewellery collection, which is available now from the Taylor & Vine online shop UK at <http://www.Taylorandvine.com>. Following the success of their Spring 2012 Costume Jewellery collections, which included a jubilee jewellery range, Taylor & Vine have added many new jewellery items to their continually expanding website. New products include new additions from Costume Jewellery UK Brand Blowing in the Wind which features real handpicked leaves but also necklace, bracelets, earrings and rings within Taylor & Vines own costume jewellery range.

Â

Summer trends this year have a nature focused theme, which heavily feature flowers and extend the use of vibrant citrus and also pastel colours that were introduced in Spring. New costume jewellery items include delicate multi-layer daisy necklaces in silver & gold with co-ordinating bracelets, but also long woven floral necklaces with matching earrings. Trends in costume rings continue to be chunky & bold but featuring this seasons colours. Shamballa crystal bracelets are also featured.

Â

In addition to their Summer Collection,, Taylor & Vine will continue to add new products to their ranges from top costume jewellery brands and designers which include Babette Wasserman, Mirabelle, Azuni & The Bohm throughout the next few months.
