(Naples, FL, July 24, 2012) Dolce Vita Hair Salon in Naples is donating 100% of all hair service sales on Tuesday, July 31 to Eden Autism Services.

Â

Eden Autism Services' mission is to improve the lives of children and adults with autism and support their families by providing a range of community based services to meet specific needs throughout the lifespan. These services include K-12 schools in Fort Myers and Naples, clinical services, consultations and community training, and adult residential, vocational training and employment services.

Giving back to the community is a tradition at our salon, said owner Doug Bladich. This is the third year we have donated sales to a local charity. We have friends and family members who have been impacted by autism and we see the difference Eden is making in the lives of individuals with autism in Southwest Florida.

Â

The support of local businesses like Dolce Vita Hair Salon helps raise much-needed funds to support the mission of Eden, said Susan Suarez, Director of Eden Autism Services Florida operations. We are indebted to Dolce Vita for their commitment to our community.

Â

Customers can donate to Eden by calling Dolce Vita for an appointment and mentioning the Eden fundraiser. Payments should be made by check payable to Eden Autism Services.

Â

Dolce Vita Hair Salon is known for expert Framesi color and advanced education through Bumble & Bumble. About Autism

Autism is a complex neurobiological disorder that inhibits a person's ability to communicate and develop social relationships, and is often accompanied by behavioral challenges. Autism spectrum disorders are diagnosed in one in 88 children in the United States, and one in 54 boys. The prevalence of autism has increased 600 percent in the past two decades. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention have called autism a national public health crisis whose cause and cure remain unknown.
