

Para-Plus Translations and Interpretations Launches New Website

South Jersey-based Language Services Company Unveils New Website Featuring Updated Navigation, Useful Resources and Job Scheduling

Online PR News â€“ 21-August-2012 â€“ The leading providers of comprehensive global translation and interpretation services based in Barrington, N.J., Para-Plus Translations, Inc., announces the launch of its new website, www.para-plus.com. The user-friendly and easy-to-navigate site demonstrates the companys focus on translations and interpretation along with transcription and other language services.

Â

The home page of the site serves as a doorway to the companys translation or interpretation services depending on the need of the website user. Visitors can schedule interpretation jobs or translation projects via the website and send documents to the management team directly. Visitors are also able to easily identify the industries which Para-Plus Translations serves, along with the services that the company offers to its customers in more than 100 languages including Spanish, Russian and Vietnamese. The revamped website also features a Media Center where website users can go to read news and press releases, two Frequently Asked Questions areas to learn more about Para-Plus Translations and Interpretations services and two Resources sections for more in-depth information.

Â

We are very excited to unveil our newly redesigned website, designed and managed by Furia Rubel, to the public. The websites focus on both sides of our business, translation and interpretation services, meets our strategic goals as a company. Our website users can easily see the industries we serve such as legal, education and finance along with the services we offer ranging from transcription, multimedia and website localization to braille and sign language interpretation, said Robert Santiago, Chief Operating Office at Para-Plus Translations. Top of mind in creating this website were our customers and their ability to easily find information and the new offering of an integrated form submission option is an added convenience.

The company was founded in 1980 when Sonia Santiago, a Puerto Rican transplant, recognized the need for quality interpretation and translations services in the legal community. More than 30 years later, Para-Plus Translations has grown and expanded to offer language services in over 100 languages. Now managed and operated by Santiagos two sons, Robert Santiago, Chief Operations Officer and Carlos Santiago, Vice President, Para-Plus Translations is excited to continue its long-standing tradition of providing valuable language services to its clients.

Â

About Para-Plus Translations, Inc.: Para-Plus Translations is a leading provider of comprehensive global translation, interpretation, transcription, voice-over, sign language and Braille services in more than 100 languages. Founded in 1980, Para-Plus Translations has been offering a wide range of foreign language services to businesses, individuals and organizations for more than three decades. Para-Plus Translations takes pride in delivering outstanding service and personal attention, representing a wide array of industries including businesses, law firms and legal service providers, governments and municipalities, health care, education, financial and insurance institutions. National and international clients rely on Para-Plus Translations to provide document translation, business and trade translation and interpretation, conference translation and interpretation, criminal justice and law enforcement translation and interpretation, medicine and health care translation and interpretation, educational translation and interpretation, and multimedia and voice-over translation and interpretation. The dedicated team of foreign language linguists assists clients in breaking down communication barriers to build lasting relationships with multicultural contacts. For further information, please visit www.para-plus.com

Â

Media Information

Rose Strong

rose@furiarubel.com

<http://www.furiarubel.com>

2 Hidden Lane

Doylestown

PA

18901

United States