

Image Gallery

College Girl Cleaning Service

In it's annual competition, Orlando cleaning and maid service College Girl Cleaning Service was voted best in area by Fox 35 viewers.

Online PR News "26-September-2012" College Girl Cleaning Service, a cleaning, maid, and housekeeping service operating in both Orlando, Florida and Denver, Colorado, recently has been voted as the top cleaning and maid service by local residents, according to the annual Fox 35 Mojo Awards. The cleaning service beat out all local competitors to receive the honor. The company received a total of twenty votes from customers, all being five stars, the highest rating available.

Â

The company's mission is to excel in customer service while also offering competitive pricing to both its residential and commercial clients, all while helping local students. Fully licensed and insured, the service helps both local college students and the community, never requires its clients to sign any contracts of any kind, and offers free estimates and has no consolation fees or first-time surcharges.

Â

The company has recently expanded and is committed to using it's successful Orlando model to bring the same level of service to multiple cities. Only experienced, trained, and reliable employees are hired by the service and complete satisfaction is guaranteed prior to any payment being rendered by the client. Free estimates are offered, no contracts are required, and the company is fully licensed and insured to offer the client an extra level of protection.

Â

Image Gallery

Media Information

Michael

info@collegegirlcleaningservice.com

<http://collegegirlcleaningservice.com/>

424 Hillcrest Street

Orlando

Florida

32803

United States