Geordie-born DJ/Producer Adam Tindill Aka Original Sin Brings This Filthy Six Track EP Into The World On Oct 29th

Online PR News â€“ 07-October-2012 â€“ Geordie-born DJ/Producer Adam Tindill aka Original Sin brings this filthy six track EP into the world on Oct 29th.

Â

Fans of Original Sin will be expecting his trademark swirling, cinematic sounds and bass-rich heaviness and will not be disappointed with this solid tracklist.

Â

Already getting 1Xtra love, title track Mad World starts with a sweeping, atmospheric vocal which quickly cascades into some crazy beats whilst beautiful vocal sample on You Scream pulls you deeper in.

Â

Funkier Soul Food is another stand out cut currently getting tipped on blogs and forums and Vegas is a cheeky scamp of a tune expect to hear this one as the sweat drips from the ceiling and the crowd grinds on the dance floor.

Â

The EP includes a remix of Therapy the colossal one from Original Sins debut album Grow Your Wings which put him on the radar and destroyed it in the clubs back in 2009 - and has rarely left the bags of dubstep/dnb DJs since. Original Sins just shot a video to go with this version of the track.

Get ready to get mad for it
