The Adoption Key Family Stimulus Contest was created to celebrate November National Adoption Month and to award to one deserving person or couple the "free" professional support, necessary consultation and adoption education throughout their adoption journey.

Online PR News â€œ 02-November-2012 â€œ November is National Adoption Month and marks the beginning of The Adoption Key Family Stimulus Contest. Every November for the past 17 years, the President of the United States, many State Governors and organizations issue proclamations and sponsor events to raise awareness of the need for adoptive families and to inspire everyone to become concerned with the children and youth in foster care.

"Everyones got to be for a child to have a home and love. I mean I dont know anyone who would be against that," Dave Thomas, founder of Wendys.

Everyones got to be for a child to have a home and love. I mean I dont know anyone who would be against that,

The Adoption Key stimulates the growth of families through the adoption process by providing professional services and adoption consultation to those that desire to adopt a child through the newborn domestic adoption process and/or the foster care system. The Adoption Key believes a successful adoption journey begins and continues with a family who is educated about the adoption process and they do just that, from the initial thought of adoption through supporting a family beyond adoption finalization.

The Adoption Key Family Stimulus Contest was created to celebrate National Adoption Awareness Month and to award to one deserving person or couple the free professional support, consultation and adoption education so that they can have the resources to adopt a child into their family. This is the first time for the The Adoption Key Stimulus Contest. The Adoption Key is establishing itself as the adoption consultants that give great support and gets results for those individuals and couples that desire to adopt a child in less than a year.

"I am the proud single Mother of a handsome baby boy. My adoption process started on March 24, 2010 when I placed a phone call to Dawn. Dawn guided me in the process and educated me on adoption professionals. One month later, on April 26th, I was chosen by a birth family to adopt their son. Now, I realize that this is not a normal wait time to adopt but when your miracle is waiting, grab it!" Julie F. Clermont, FL

Entries to The Adoption Key Stimulus Contest will answer 4 questions that are judged against a stringent set of standards and the high level of desire that they express. Dawn Klungseth, the founder of The Adoption Key, will contact 5 finalists. The grand prize, which includes the development of a Parent Profile and private coaching throughout their Adoption Journey to becoming an adoptive parent, will be awarded to one couple or an individual on February 13, 2013. The judging period continues two weeks after the final entries are received on December 31st, 2013.

This year's panel of judges includes:

Dawn Klungseth, Founder of The Adoption Key.

Jeff Klungseth, Co-Founder of The Adoption Key.

Kim Baer, Member of the Foster Parent Association of Central Florida.

"My husband and I also rode the roller coaster through the domestic adoption process successfully! From our personal experience and the exceptional insiders point of view we gained, I understand how overwhelming, confusing and expensive adoption can be. After sharing my knowledge and guidance with Florida families, I was continuously asked to help more families nationwide that did not have the $2,250 to pay me to be their adoption consultant, hence, The Adoption Key Family Stimulus Contest was created. stated Dawn Klungseth, Founder of The Adoption Key.

Dawn Klungseth and her husband Jeff adopted a handsome baby boy in 2009 through newborn domestic adoption after they struggled through fertility unsuccessfully. They personally went through the adoption process successfully and that is why Dawn considers it a privilege to personally help other couples and individuals with making their family dreams come true.
