

Rajasthan is known far and wide for its rich culture, and valiant history.

Online PR News "01-April-2013" Rajasthan is known far and wide for its rich culture, and valiant history. Royal State or the State of Kings, have been one of the oldest existing civilization in Modern India and still retains some of the pomp and splendor of royalty in its traditions and culture. One of the latest contributors towards marketing Rajasthan as a sought after destination for tourists and businesses is Rajasthali Resort Jaipur.

Â

The luxury resort near Jaipur Delhi highway is cradled amidst the lap of serenity and luxury, and is a classic example of amalgamation of history and serenity described by the magnificent Aravalis. The idea behind the resort is to make the guests feel at home amidst royal splendor of Rajasthan complemented by modern luxury. It is a delight for both business and leisure travelers, and provides a unique accommodation experience in the cuddle of the Aravalis.

Â

Feel and look of a palace are brought forth by comfortable stay with mesmerizing locales, and thoughtfully appointed rooms. The state of the art facility like Spa, in-room Jacuzzi, and delectable food and beverage menu are developed to pamper the guests. This is evident from testimonials of the guests on public forums like TripAdvisor.

Â

The accommodation options places guests in a dilemma, as each one is better than the other. The premier palace rooms are one such option that brings forth the royal spirit of Jaipur. Luxury and comfort are illustrated at its best in the princely decor and amenities that promise unmatched comfort and convenience. Relax on your king size bed in your room in Jaipur; indulge in a fine array of beverages at the mini bar while you watch your favorite program on the LCD television mounting the wall. Other options to consider are the Deluxe Palace Room, the Aravalli Suite and grandiose Tents.
