Online PR News " 30-April-2013" Ontario, Canada - Elayne Whitfield of Ontario, Canada has been identified as one of the most sought after "Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coaches" online in 2013.

Â

The result of a current online opinion poll through which responders were asked to recognize the "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coach" of 2013 produced what some might assert was a not surprising result. Business woman, 2013 nominee for the Thomas Leonard International Virtual Assistant of the year, 2013 RBC Canadian Woman Entrepreneur of the Year nominee and well known online professional, Elayne Whitfield, was selected over any other recognized Virtual Assistant in online.

Â

The poll and eventually, the designation of "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coach" was setup immediately following an intense discussion about just who in Canada would really be able to lay claim to that distinction.

Â

In an effort to maintain fairness to all Canadian online VA Experts, the survey was performed online and the winner was picked by Canadian Virtual Assistants. Immediately following the ballot, there was a heated debate over who was actually the "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coach", but after the tally was made, there was an obvious and undisputed winner of the desired title.

Â

Immediately following the survey, Elayne Whitfield was presented as the "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coach" on-line. Participants, when asked about about the ballot, appeared to have very positive reactions to Elayne Whitfield's earning the highly sought after title, ranging from support that one particular person could be so well-liked, to complete agreement over the selection that had been decided upon.

Â

Ms. Whitfield was most likely identified as one of the "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coaches" by participants, in large part due to the hard work she has performed for virtual assistants as the co-founder of The Canadian Virtual Assistant Connection. As a recognized Virtual Assistant leader and expert who now focuses on training, speaking and coaching, the results were, in part because participants were familiar with her work and reputation.

Â

After the final results were in, Elayne Whitfield was quoted as saying "To be completely honest, I wasn't even aware that there was a survey going on at all. I'm delighted that many people are aware of my name!"

Â

Whitfield was also mentioned saying "I work hard on my company, and am truly excited about what I am working on in 2013. Hearing that people here in Canada have actually recognized me as the "Best Virtual Assistant Trainer, Speaker and Coach" is not merely an honour, it's also a privilege. Thanks to all the Virtual Assistants that participated in the vote".
