

The new Jacquard Bamboo Linen line will add a new selection of patterns and colors to the companys highly popular bamboo bed linen range

Online PR News â€“ 10-July-2013â€“ Melbourne, Australia: Keeping in mind the eco friendly range of clothing and linen, Ettitude.com.au has introduced its new line of jacquard bamboo sheets and duvet covers. This new range is an enhancement to the other organic range of linen that is already being offered.

Ettitude.com.au, a company known for making the earth a better place to live in, has played an important role in providing some unique eco friendly products. Their initiatives are always appreciated by the community and have been cherished by nature lovers. This new range of jacquard sheets and jacquard duvet covers is one of their gifts to the society.

Our bamboo bedding is one of our most popular lines, so it made sense for us to look at ways of expanding it. Some of our customers had mentioned the idea of adding a wider variety of patterns and colors to our collection, and the jacquard style seemed like a good fit for the natural look that our customers prefer. Our new range speaks for itself. This product line adds a little uniqueness to our bamboo sheets and duvet covers. The jacquard pattern is always loved by all and to create a mix of consumer choice and organic products is one of our specialties. , says Phoebe Yu, the Managing Director of ettitude.com.au.

Ettitude.com.au is well popular for its high quality organic products. The launch of a new line adds to their pride. The range will also come in the companys signature smart packaging range, which is currently being rolled out across new lines. The right mix of nature and comfort has made them more lovable within their segment.
