

iPad Cases Retailer Continues Increasing Top Brands to Their Lineup

ProtectThePad.com adds Case-Mate iPad cases to their lineup.

Online PR News "07-June-2010" Charlotte, NC (PRWEB) May 18, 2010 Charlotte-based On Top Results recently announced the launch of ProtectThePad.com, a website aimed at providing the highest quality iPad cases and covers for savvy consumers. Today, On Top Results announced the addition of Case-Mate iPad accessories to their lineup.

Â

When asked why he chose Case Mate, Mr. Schilling responded, Case-Mate has been creating quality products for the iPhone since day one. Their push to the iPad was imminent and we're proud to display their lineup of iPad accessories on our storefront.

Â

Both Case-Mate and the team at ProtectThePad.com know what others in the industry fail to realize. Simply owning an iPad is not enough. Those who spend their money on the device need to ensure that it will stand the test of time, continuing to work many years after the initial investment. Quality cases protect the iPad from accidental drops, scratches, dust and debris. Some can even protect the device from the occasional spill or drop of liquid. This makes them invaluable to the serious Apple fan.
