Online PR News "08-June-2010" John Cardwell Limited www.john-cardwell.co.uk leading UK manufacturer of expansion joints will exhibit, in association with its parent Company, Belman Production A/S of Esbjerg, Denmark at the POWER-GEN Europe exhibition at the Amsterdam RAI Exhibition Centre 8, 9 and 10 June.

Â

This will be the first time Belman and John Cardwell Limited have made a joint appearance at an exhibition. The decision to work together at this prestigious event was based on a desire to demonstrate to the market that the two companies work closely together and by doing so offer a combined wealth of experience together with superb design and manufacturing capabilities to clients in the power generation sector of the market.

Â

Both John Cardwell and Belman Production have a strong reputation in the power sector and supplied compensators for use in coal-fired, gas-fired and nuclear power stations. Additionally they are used to designing and supplying units for CHP schemes, district heating pipework and steam distribution pipework.
