Online PR News â€“ 13-January-2014â€“ John Daly Pizza announced that it will exhibit at the PGA 2014 Merchandise Show, January 21 24, 2014, at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando Florida. John Daly Pizza is pleased to roll out a new pizza program that is ideal for the Golf Environment. The PGA Merchandise Show attracts more than 41,000 of the most influential people in golf from all 50 states and 74 countries.

Â

Jim Howell, Co-Founder of John Daly Pizza, states, John Daly Pizza is the perfect turnkey pizza option for golf courses and resorts. The John Daly Equipment Program is focused on an extremely compact pizza concept that is ideal for generating additional revenue, while keeping it simple and focused. Our products taste great and are created for ease of operation and production. We are excited to bring the John Daly Pizza concept to the PGA 2014 Merchandise Show.

Â

Attendees of the PGA 2014 Merchandise Show can stop by booth 3401 to learn more about the John Daly compact pizza concept, equipment and products. Programs are available with either Large or Personal Pizzas. The dough, sauce, cheese and meat ingredients that make up the fresh baked pizza recipes are some of the best available. We are not a pizza franchise and don't require a royalty. Our process is very flexible and allows you to select only the pizzeria equipment you need for the program. The Goal of John Daly Pizza Programs is simple: To generate sales and repeat customers for your business with our great pizza.

Â

In addition to product information, attendees can drop by the booth to enter for a chance to win free entry to the John Daly Charity Golf Tournament in June of 2014.
