

USPS Confirms 2014 Direct Mail Promotions and Incentives

The U.S. Postal Service (USPS) officially announced about their 2014 promotions calendar where they have planned to increase the use of First Class, shipping and digital technology with also offering huge discounts.

Online PR News â€“ 20-January-2014â€“ The U.S. Postal Service officially announced their 2014 promotions calendar aimed at increasing use of First Class, shipping, and digital technology. A 15% rate discount, the largest discount offered, is for First Class marketing pieces under their spring promotion. Other promotions being offered are for direct mail pieces that include, Branded Color-Mobile Technology, Digital Personalization or Color Print in First Class.

According to the USPS, The general intent of all promotions is to increase the value of transactional and direct mail and to retain or sustain its long-term growth. These promotions create excitement about mail, keep mail top-of-mind for marketers, reward innovative customers, show customers we want their business and encourage others in the mailing industry to provide similar sale initiatives for customers.
