

The Voice of Stray Dogs announces the 1st Technical Paper contest on stray animals.

VoSD is calling for entries on "Alleviating the suffering of Stray & Domesticated Animals in Urban India: The 1st Annual National Technical Paper Contest (2014)" for Veterinary & Legal papers with a prize money of Rs.1 lac. The contest is open to vet students, legal students.

Online PR News "18-February-2014" This is a technical / research paper competition and your entry needs to focus on a solution and not exemplify a problem. The contest is open to vet students, legal students, research scholars, practicing lawyers and NGOs. All submissions need to be in-depth, with substantial research and references, should demonstrate original thinking, and the approach formulated should have clarity and completeness. This is not an essay competition. Understanding of ABC, and The PCA and Rules enacted under The PCA for Legal papers, and ABC / vet science for Veterinary papers is a must. Focus should be on solutions that would minimize or eliminate human-animal conflict; and you could encompass aspects such as living conditions, transportation, medical and legal interventions for dogs, cattle, pigs and other animals typically found in urban India. Research and discussions on wildlife, and conflicts arising thereof, may not and will not be a part of the submissions. An abstract of the paper is expected to be 400-500 words and the final paper should be between 4000-5000 words.
