Admissions to Sydenham Institute of Management Studies, Research and Entrepreneurship Education (SIMSREE) are open for Maharashtra as well as outside Maharashtra candidates too.

Online PR News â€œ 01-March-2014â€ MMS/PGDM admissions to 180 seats in Sydenham institute of Management Studies, Research and Entrepreneurship Education (SIMSREE) are open for Maharashtra as well as outside Maharashtra candidates.

SIMSREE Mumbai Admission 2014: Short listing

Short listing of the candidates will be made on the basis of their performance in any of the all India entrance tests like CAT/XAT/CMAT/ATMA/MAT or MAHCET. Weightage to all these examinations will be 100 percent and if a candidate has appeared in more than one examination, his better score will be taken into account. If he appears in MAHCET and scores high, this score will supersede the earlier scores.

No separate cutoff will be individually applied by SIMSREE. There will be Maharashtra B schools Centralized Allotment Process (CAP) conducted by DTE Maharashtra, after the declaration of results of MAHCET on April 21, 2014. Candidates will be allotted institutes on the basis of CAP. Thus there will be only one admission round common to all the b schools.

Submission of Application @ SIMSREE Mumbai

Candidates do not require applying separately to SIMSREE. Admissions to the institute will be handled by Centralized Allotment Process. However, it is mandatory for the prospective candidates to register for MAHCET, although they may choose not to appear in the examination. The exam is to be conducted on March 15 & 16, 2014 across Maharashtra and at designated centers outside Maharashtra
