Gila Joy in Santa Fe

Gila Joy Pascale, owner and certified Life Coach, is joyfully ecstatic to announce the recent launch in Santa Fe, NM of Coaching For The Soul.

Online PR News "02-August-2010" Santa Fe, NM - Coaching For The Soul has been joyfully launched by Gila Joy Pascale. Gila practiced as a Gestalt psychotherapist, couples communication trainer and Life Coach in Germany for 20 years before marrying and moving to Santa Fe. Now she functions solely as a Life Coach preferring to focus on helping her clients realize their dreams and live the lives they have always wanted - personally, spiritually or in their business. People in transition have especially hired her. Gila was a nominee for International Coach of the Year 2009.

Â

Clients get the expertise of a highly trained professional, one who knows how to listen, give honest feedback and provide the support for breaking through those old, nasty patterns that hold people back. Together, Gila and her client uncover what is holding them back, develop a plan to fulfill their deepest wish and then Gila, in her lovingly German way, holds them accountable to reach their goal. Gila does coaching in English and in German.

Â

Elizabeth Clark, Certified Master Trainer, has this to say about Gila: "For an inspiring certified professional coach who radiates confidence, connect with Gila. What I liked most about her is that she's highly trained, warmhearted, fun, supportive, and really gets things done. Thanks for the insightful sessions."

Â

Veronika Langer, a European client, adds: "What a change in my life! With your support I fulfilled my dream to live in Spain, and I am proud of myself. A great feeling."

Â

Coaching For The Soul draws inspiration from disciplines including sociology, psychology, the spiritual healing arts, mentoring, NLP (Neuro Linguistic Programming), and different types of counseling.
