The Center for Public Policy Analysis (CPPA), the Lao Veterans of America, Inc. (LVA), the Lao Veterans of America Institute and a coalition of Lao and Hmong non-profit and non-governmental organizations have urged national support for efforts by U.S. Congressman Jim Costa and twenty-two (22) Members of the U.S. House of Representatives to grant burial benefits to Lao and Hmong veterans at U.S. national cemeteries.

Â

The Lao Veterans of America Institute in cooperation with the CPPA have held national ceremonies and policy events at the Vietnam War Memorial, Arlington National Cemetery and the U.S. Congress in recent years urging support for veterans benefits for Laotian and Hmong veterans who served in combat against communist Pathet Lao insurgents and North Vietnamese forces during the Vietnam War.

Â

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you Congressman Jim Costa for helping to take the leadership on the Lao and Hmong Veterans Burial Benefits legislation. I also want to thank you and the twenty-two (22) other Congresspersons for your crucial efforts and strong decision as original co-sponsors, said Colonel Wangyee Vang, National President and founder of the Lao Veterans of America, Inc. and Lao Veterans of America Institute.

Â

We are urging nation-wide support for this important effort, Vang said.

Â

This effort and legislation are very important for the Hmong, Khmu, Lao, Mien and other ethnic minorities who served on behalf of the American people in the United States secret army in Laos during the Vietnam War, stated Wangyee Vang.
