

digitalJ2 Celebrates One Year of Service

digitalJ2 is pleased to announce they are celebrating one year of providing quality service to their customers.

Online PR News "23-December-2014" digitalJ2 is pleased to announce they are celebrating one year of providing quality service to their customers. Despite their successes this year, they are projecting a 200 percent growth in the coming year, which will allow them to provide even more services to their existing clients, as well as new ones.

Â

At digitalJ2, they understand the importance of taking businesses digital so they can effectively reach their target audience. That's why they provide a long list of services to help their customers enter the digital age, including website design, eCommerce, pay-per-click advertising, call tracking, emails, social media, content marketing and more. For the past year, they have worked to build positive relationships with their current customers and find ways to reach out to more businesses that need their help.

Â

In their first year, digitalJ2 experienced exponential growth and are predicting another year with similar results. They were even able to expand their reach to international customers. With this expanded reach, they are able to provide digital marketing services to any business, large or small, regardless of their location.

Â

Anyone who would like information on this first year of service can find out more by visiting the digitalJ2 website or by calling 1-855-954-4455.
