St. Louis snow removal owner to serve on industry's national board

Online PR News â€“ 30-November-2015â€” BSR Services owner Carl Bolm was recently elected to serve on the Snow and Ice Management Associations board of directors for a three-year term. In this position, he is responsible for assisting with a variety of tasks including strategic planning, budgeting, program approval and membership direction.

Â

Bolm is the owner and founder of BSR Services, St. Louis largest locally owned and operated snow and ice management provider, in 1984.

Â

The Snow & Ice Management Association is a trade association for those who manage snow and ice. SIMA provides resources, education and networking for snow and ice contractors and service providers across the U.S. and Canada.

Â

SIMA is our industrys main resource for raising awareness through networking and education, so I am extremely proud to be selected to serve this fine organization, said BSR Services owner Carl Bolm. I look forward to working with colleagues throughout the nation in order to promote snow and ice management safety and programming.

Â

BSR Services is a proactive risk management expert that focuses on snow-specific commercial property service. The company is located at 2340 Verna Ave. in Maryland Heights, Mo. For more information, call (314) 569-3005.
