

NJE Group Earns Verified Existence Seal from Trust Guard

The seal builds confidence & sound client relationships by verifying that company information is accurate.

Online PR News â€œ 01-December-2015â€œ National Judgment Enforcement Group (NJE Group), a collection agency that provides Plaintiffs with an affordable, hassle free method of recovering judgments, is proud to publish that they have received a verified existence seal from Trust Guard, an association that promotes ethical company standards by granting trust seals & assisting in consumer dispute resolution by mediation.

Â

NJE Group was required to pass Trust Guards comprehensive review process prior to acquiring the trust seal. The process validated information that included address, website domain & compliance manager contact information. The trust seal is now displayed on NJE Groups website. The seal helps build confidence & sound client relationships by confirming that the information on NJE Groups site has been verified to be accurate by a trusted third party.
