Rising singer/songwriter, Amanda Grace releases her newest hit: Better Life and explains her thought process to her fans.

Online PR News â€“ 22-January-2016â€“ Singer and avid songwriter, Amanda Grace combines rich vocals and powerful thought provoking lyrics in her new release of "Better Life." The song literally dropped down on me, says Grace. The new single follows the success of her internet favorite, Los Angeles which generated a huge buzz on social media. However, Amanda Grace believes this is her best song. Initially, the single was written in 6/8, but after suggestions by the producer Scotty Lund and influence of Amanda Grace's musical instincts, Better Life was finalized in two different time signatures. I hope my fans love it, says Grace.
