Clients hold Jason Skipworth in the highest regard. Im not sure I really understood the value of a Realtor until I met Jason. He helped us with the purchase and sale of our condo, and the purchase of our new home. Jason advised us every step of the way, brought new ideas and information to our search process, helped us to be competitive in an extremely tight market, and most importantly listened to our needs and found us exactly what we had hoped for. We have made good investments in our both of our homes thanks to his sound advice. Not to mention, he was understanding and incredible when having to sell our condo working around an infants schedule!! We still chat with him regularly, asking advice about renovations, seeking recommendations for other services, and of course just letting him know how happy we are with our new place. It is truly a pleasure to work with Jason. Katie & Aaron
