Online PR News â€“ 13-May-2016â€“ Zomint.com, an online jewellery store in India, has recently ventured into the field of personalised jewellery, providing a fantastic opportunity to send custom-designed gifts to loved ones. Despite being a new player in this arena, Zomint has created a niche with its unique designs, friendly customer service and free shipping all over India.

Personalised jewellery makes the most impressive gifts to loved ones on any special occasion. It also makes the perfect adornment that reflects ones unique personality and style statement. Be it any occasion, custom-designed jewellery is the best way to express the bond of love and togetherness or send a special message. Unfortunately, there are only a handful of jewellery stores in India that provide the highest levels of personalisation at an affordable price.

Zomint.com is one of the pioneering online jewellery stores in India that has launched a special category dedicated to personalised jewellery. Send beautiful personalised gifts to loved ones with their name or face imprinted artistically on stunning pieces of jewellery. Finger print personalised gifts are a popular choice at Zomint, with vivid collection of finger print pendants, finger print earrings and finger print rings. Buyers can choose their preferred type of jewellery, metal and design, which will be engraved with names, face or special message of love.

Name pendants and rings are one of our best-sellers. It has long been a trend to have names engraved on jewellery. However, the option of customisation is limited. Therefore, we have introduced a completely new category personalised jewellery catering to the demands of our consumers who wish to gift something unique and special. Our design choices make the perfect gift for any occasion like birthday, anniversary and wedding. Just have the names or the face of your loved one engraved on the piece of jewellery, and it will instantly bring smiles to faces, says Mr. Prajeeth Venkatesan, a company spokesperson.

To top Zomint's amazing collection of personalised gifts is certified jewellery and free shipping all over India. All jewellery displayed on the website carries BIS Hallmark, assuring the purity of gold in the product. Diamond jewellery from Zomint comes with a certificate of authenticity from prestigious laboratories like SGL, IGI and HKD. The online jewellery shopping store also provides free shipping in India, delivering all the products on time and without any additional fees. 30-day return policy is not applicable on personalised jewellery category.
