About Krystal Lawrence

Born in Southern California, Krystal Lawrence was a child actress, appearing in major motion pictures and television shows. In her twenties she hosted a successful radio talk show in Las Vegas and majored in criminal justice in college. Working for a police department, Ms. Lawrence gained detailed insight into the world of crime scene investigation and police interrogation. She has carried this knowledge over into her books, lending an aspect of true crime to purely fictional stories. Since moving to Seattle, Ms. Lawrence devoted her creativity solely to fiction writing, which she calls her true north. She has enjoyed many national accolades for her work.
