Â

Meet The Artists:

From Parker, Colorado "Say You Love Me For Christmas" by Les Fradkin. This track is a succinct 2 minutes 47 seconds of really happy Christmas music that just makes the listener smile. The music is, well, pretty and Les has a good voice. Bongo Boy Recording artist Les Fradkin's music can also be find on the surf compilations and a new album release is on the schedule for 2017. Â

From Quebec, Canada "Jingle Jangle" by Walter Rossi and written by Walter Rossi and Kyla Vezina. Walter came to the world of pop music at a time when a major shift was taking place on the Canadian scene. It is his hope, that in sharing his full bio about his beginning experiences, he will bring you another perspective of its evolution. Furthermore, he hopes it will underscore (once more) that there is no manual or starter kit when it comes to making a career out of a passion. Artist Web Site: <http://www.walterrossi.net>

Â

From California, "Frosty The Snowman" by The Forty Nineteens written by Steve Nelson, Walter Jack in the 50's. John, Chuck, and Nick have been wanting to do a fun Christmas song for some time now. They asked one another what was the funniest song to sing as kids. Easily it was "Frosty The Snowman". The Forty Nineteens other garage rock song "I'm Free" will be released on Bongo Boy Records Out Of The Garage Volume Three in 2017. Artist Web Site: <http://www.thefortynineteens.com/>

Â

From Allentown, PA Rev. Peter Unger "Christmas Cards". When Peter was growing up Christmas time was a magical time in his a small town in Vermont. Living on the side of mountain three miles up a dirt road their home was a beautifully renovated farm house from the 1700s. On a clear winter's day a forty mile vista of snow blanketed fields and mountains could be seen. Peter's father, an emigrant from the Netherlands, brought Dutch Christmas customs into their home. It was all the cherished memories that came to mind when Peter wrote "Christmas Cards". Artist Web Site: <https://www.reverbNation.com/revpeterunger>

Â

From New Jersey, 3 members of the garage rock band The Doughboys came together to record their Christmas Garage Rock song "Let's Have A Rockin Christmas" written by Gar Francis. Under the name

Jackie Kringle & the Elves which includes Myke Scavone Lead Vocals and Harp, Mike Caruso on Bass and Gar Francis on Guitar and everything else you hear. Check it out, feel the groove (and the humor) - then sit back and listen to some righteous harp. Artist Web Site: <https://bongoboyrecords.com/jackiekringle/>

Â

From Plainfield, New Jersey, Wayne Olivieri and DJ Chris Ibe remixed of Wayne's Christmas song "I Love Christmas Time". Simply put this is one very enthusiastic dance track. You will find yourself nodding your head as Wayne shouts out "I LOVE Christmas time!". His enthusiasm is infectious to say the least, but that is Wayne. Â

From Sweden "The Angel Gabriel" by Deborah Henriksson. Get ready to be blown away by this not rock and roll song. It does however massively rock! How can that be you wonder? Listen to the song. Deborah has a great voice! You will find yourself listening to this track over and over simply because of the things she can do vocally. Deborah is an international recording artist and her music can be found on other compilation releases by Bongo Boy Records.

Â

From the Heartland of America Bongo Boy Records artist Inches From Sin brings us "Jingle Jangle Jingle" includes massively cool guitar in combination with the funk voice of both Karen Holloway Brewer and Robert is just so perfect. Inches From Sin are one of the hard working duo. Inches From Sin's music can be found on other Bongo Boy Records compilation releases and their album "Bridgewater Triangle" was released earlier this year by Bongo Boy Records worldwide. They are working on a new album for 2017. Artist Web Site: <http://www.inchesfromsin.com/>

Â

From Greenbelt, Maryland STEEL "Have A Gigolo XMAS" ft. Bubu The Producer. A cool Rap Christmas song that just oozes cool and the nod to Louis Prima is appropriate. Artist Web Site: <http://www.ellorenzrecords.com/>

Â

From Montego Bay, Jamaica, Tammi T and Keith Hines Production "Go Wish" this is extremely enthusiastic track with a message of HOPE. Tammi T vocals sound good as the listener is reminded that the true meaning of Christmas has nothing to do with a particular day on the calendar, but is something we should try to keep throughout the year. Another great song "Dance With A Stranger" by Tammi T and Keith Hines Production was released on Bongo Boy Records Volume Nine in ASIA. Artist Web Site:

Â

From The UK, YSANNE "Christmas In The Sun" ft. ZanZclan a Reggae inspired track that will place a smile on your face. With children's vocals being spliced into a song that works very well here. YSANNE other song "The Golfers Rap" is featured on Bongo Boy Records Volume X. YSANNE's official music videos are seen on National Television in the USA. Artist Web Site: <https://www.facebook.com/YSANNE10>

Â

From to the beautiful twin island republic of Trinidad & Tobago, the home of Calypso and Soca music, steel pan, and the greatest international Carnival in de' world comes Cousins STEEL & Cortez "1,2,3". The abundance of joy projected by the band is sure to infuse you will a sense of lightheartedness. As this song starts, they wrote it not only as a holiday song, but as a happy, positive song for year round enjoyment, and for all ages! Happy Holidays! and like their song says, it's like 1, 2, 3, live safe free and be happy, always!
