

Interactive Online Contest With Prize \(Valued at \$1,200\)

CME Group is offering an interactive online contest. Everyone who is eligible is encouraged to submit a free entry up until June 1 2017.

Online PR News â€“ 24-May-2017â€“ Gold futures are some of the most highly traded futures contracts. They hold a high economic significance and are important even during times of market uncertainty.

Â

Infinity Futures, LLC is participating in the CME Group Gold Challenge. This interactive, online challenge aims to test participants knowledge of the CME Group Gold markets by asking them to estimate the closing price of the June 30th August Gold futures contract.

Â

A 1oz gold bar will be awarded to the participant with the estimate closest to the actual closing price. The prize is valued around $1,200. All legal residents of the United States who are at least 18 years of age are eligible and encouraged to participate in the challenge.

Â

Entries are free and easy to submit. Simply follow the link to the online entry form, fill out some basic personal information and input your best guess for the settlement price of the August Gold Contract and July Silver Contract in the correct format shown on the page. A winner will be selected and notified on June 30th, 2017.

Trading Futures, options on futures and retail off-exchange foreign currency transactions involves substantial risk of loss and is not suitable for all investors. You should carefully consider whether trading is suitable for you in light of your circumstances, knowledge, and financial resources. You may lose all or more of your initial investment. The lower the day trade margin, the higher the leverage and riskier the trade. Leverage can work for you as well as against you; it magnifies gains as well as losses. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.
